

The Blade's Correspondence

Will Stand by the Blade.

CHICAGO, ILL.—You may put me down for a contribution of ten dollars in case any serious attempt shall be made to exclude the Blade from the mails.—C. B. WAITE.

Promises $10 For The Fight.

HAMILTON, O.—I note an article entitled "Religious Liberty Threatened" in the last issue of the Blue Grass Blade, and a request for patrons of Blade, and others interested in the matter to report as to what extent they are willing to aid defending their rights in the courts if such thing should become necessary.

I will say that I will contribute $10.00 if it is deemed necessary and will be ready to give it at any time.—J. P. WILSON.

Will Help If Needed.

ATHENS, O.—If nothing befalls me, shall remit in full July 1st to 5th. Have been very sick last year, and somewhat improved at present. Should you be compelled to go to court and if my health does not leave me, you can put me down for $3 to $5.

Fraternally,

H. S. LARCH, M. D.

Another Good Friend.

MEIGS, GA.—If the Postal authorities should file a case against you, you may call on me and I will contribute whatever I can at the time which I know won't be much, but can contribute small amounts from time to time.

R. BORDERS.

Stands Ready To Help.

OWENTON, KY.—Just read in Blade that you have again been threatened with another suit of prosecution by the "humble and meek" and hasten to say that you may put me down for five dollars ($5.00) as my part to help knock the scoundrels out. The Blade is hitting them too hard and the hit dog is howling; give it to them hot and fast. Give my love to your co-laborer and freedom's friend, John R. Charlesworth.—J. L. SLOCUM.

Another School Inquiry.

KUNA, IDAHO.—I have received three copies of the Blade and like it first rate. May subscribe later. Please give me information regarding your Correspondence School, as per advertisement in Blade.—T. F. HIGH.

Not Interested.

WEST HAVEN, CONN.—Have no time to waste with side issues. The emancipation of the working class is the only battle worth fighting for.—O. RUCKSER.

One More School Applicant.

DALLAS, TEXAS.—Will you please send me full particulars of "The Scientific and Philosophical Correspondence School," as per advertisement in "To-Morrow? I am interested in your announcement and wish to enroll for your full course.—R. A. HARRIS.

Well Pleased With Blade.

BROAD TOP CITY, PA.—Enclosed find $1.50 to move my tab up to July 1909. I like the new style of the Blade and am well pleased to have Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Closz back again. They are fine. Mrs. Henry is the plainest writer I ever read after.

HENRY COOK.

More Names Sent.

AUSTINGBURG, O.—Enclosed find names for sample copies of Blue Grass Blade. Also find 10 cents for which please send "The Virgin Mary."—J. A. WOODS.

Comes In With a Bunch.

MONTGOMERY, MINN.—I received your sample copy of the Blade and liked it very well. You asked for names of persons who you thought would like to receive sample copies of the Blade. Here are some of the Freethinkers of this town. There are others yet, but I cannot exactly recall their names, but I will try to push your paper whenever I get a chance; address all to Montgomery, Minnesota. I shall want the papers to be sent to me right along.—ED. PROCHASKA.

Sure Enough Freethinker.

STOCKTON, UTAH.—Enclosed please find $2.00. Move my subscription one year ahead, also one year to Mrs. M. A. Needam as per coupon enclosed. I am sure you will keep this new subscriber, since your paper is so much improved. Having dressed it up in its new clothes it looks fine and dandy. I can't do without the Blade and I shall do what I can to help it along as far as my limited means will allow. I am seventy-two years of age and have been laid up with Rheumatism for three years but shall try and scratch the dollars to keep up my subscription for the Blade. Enclosed find two clippings published in Salt Lake Evening Telegram. They are parts of Sermons delivered by Rev. Dr. Brown, of Salt Lake City. It seems to me that when a daily paper will publish admissions of that kind in a religious community like Salt Lake City that somebody is going to get their rights after a while. Trusting that the Blue Grass Blade may be able to help roll on the work.—HENRY BOOTH.

Willing To Work For Blade.

IRVING, KANSAS.—Should you think it profitable to have some old numbers of the "Blade" distributed among Freethinkers, I am in a business to find them out and would be at your service to distribute them for you or give you their names. Send me as many copies as you wish to and I will see that they are each one put in the hands of "rationalists."
